

Speech Questionnaire

Speech Sounds:

-What percent of your child's speech do you understand? ____ What percent do family members understand? ____ What percent of strangers unfamiliar to the child understand? ____ What percent do peers understand? ____

-Does your child repeat sounds, syllables, or words when talking? _____

-Does your child omit or add sounds to words? _____

-Does your child require the T.V. or radio to be turned up louder than normal? _____

-Does your child respond to his/her name? _____

-How does your child respond if not understood or asked to repeat themselves?

-Does your child like to talk? _____

-What really motivates your child? _____

Language:

-How many words is your child using consistently?

0-10__ 10-50__ 50-100__ 100+__

-Does your child talk with family____ peers____

-Can your child follow simple directions with ease? _____

-How does your child communicate with you?

Gestures/pointing ____ Sounds____ Words____ Signs____

-How does your child show affection? _____

-Does your child make eye contact with others? _____

-Can your child respond to yes/no questions when needed? _____

-Can your child point to pictures? _____

-Does your child play appropriately with different toys? _____

What toys? _____

-How often does your child require time out for behavior? _____

-Does your child have difficulty answering "WH" questions? _____

-Can your child remember simple songs and gestures? (Ex. If your Happy or Itsy Bitsy Spider)

-If your child is older than 4 years old, Can he/she re-tell a short story? _____

Feeding:

-Do you feel your child has any feeding problems? _____

-If "yes" how serious do you feel they are? _____

-How does your child eat? (self-feed or require assistance, use fingers and/or utensils, etc)

-How long does your child take to finish a particular meal?

-Can your child use a straw? _____